TF-Images/Getty Images/Defending champions Liverpool travel to Red Bull Salzburg for their final UEFA Champions League group game on Tuesday and have work to do to confirm their place in the knockout stages of the tournament. Jurgen Klopp's side top Group E from Napoli and need a point to qualify, but they will also progress if Carlo Ancelotti's side lose to Genk in the group's other game. Red Bull Salzburg are third in the group but still have a slim chance of progressing to the knockout stages for the first time in their history. ESPN FC's Dale Johnson explained what the hosts need on Tuesday. Dale Johnson @DaleJohnsonESPNGROUP E (cont) FC Salzburg: A win vs Liverpool enough UNLESS they win by a one-goal margin of 5-4 or higher-scoring and Napoli beat Genk. *NB: If Salzburg beat Liverpool and Napoli draw with Genk: 1. Napoli, 2. Salzburg, 3. Liverpool. Date: Tuesday, 10 December. Time: 5:55 p.m. GMT/12:55 p.m. ET. TV: BT Sport 3 (UK), TNT (U.S.). Live Stream: BT Sport Live (UK), B/R Live (USA). Match Odds (courtesy of Caesars): Red Bull Salzburg 57-20, Draw 13-4, Liverpool 4-5. Match Preview: Liverpool edged Salzburg 4-3 in a thriller at Anfield earlier in the group stage, and there will be plenty of attacking talent on show again at the Red Bull Arena on Tuesday. Teenage striker Erling Haaland has attracted plenty of attention this season with his goalscoring exploits and has 24 goals in 19 appearances in all competitions for the Austrian club. Bayern Munich striker Robert Lewandowski is the only player to have scored more times than the 19-year-old in Europe's top competition this season: UEFA Champions League @ChampionsLeague 8 (EIGHT) goals in his first 5 #UCL games! Erling Braut Haaland @RedBullSalzburg | @ErlingHaaland knows his team face a tough challenge to qualify but has said home advantage will be beneficial, per Jonathan Spencer for MailOnline. "They are the world's best team," he said. "But we know we are good at home and if we are at our top level, we have a chance." Jesse Marsch's side are unbeaten in 17 league games in 2019-20 and come into the match off the back of an emphatic 5-1 win over WSG Swarovski Tiroi. The Salzburg boss has been full of praise for opposite number Klopp ahead of the match: Goal @goal RB Salzburg boss Jesse Marsch: "Jurgen Klopp is probably the best coach in the world right now. "I think you can fairly say that from the way his team is performing and the history he has in the game, and the way that he's had success in Germany and England." Bull Salzburg have been beaten by Napoli and Liverpool in the Champions League this season, but their 16 goals scored in five games suggests the visitors' defence will be in for a busy evening. Liverpool head to Austria after a 3-0 Premier League win at Bournemouth that saw them maintain top spot and continue their unbeaten start to the domestic season. Klopp made seven changes to his team on Saturday to give key players such as Sadio Mane and Trent Alexander-Arnold a rest and still saw his side cruise to a comfortable victory. The Athletic's James Pearce said it was the perfect preparation for Tuesday's match: James Pearce @JamesPearceLFCLiverpool have had to really fight and grind out a lot of wins so far this season but for the past hour this has been an absolute stroll in the park. Perfect preparation for Tuesday's game v Salzburg #LFC. The Reds have been flawless in the Premier League but have not been as convincing in Europe. They were beaten in Napoli and held to a 1-1 draw by the Serie A side at Anfield and have not managed a clean sheet in five group games. However, the holders are favourites to see off Salzburg, and their superior quality should be enough to see off a spirited home side on Tuesday and send through them as group winners. Koji Watanabe/Getty Images. Liverpool are set to complete the signing of Red Bull Salzburg winger Takumi Minamino in January after the club confirmed a deal has been reached between the two clubs. BBC Sport's Mandeep Sanghera reported on Wednesday that Minamino underwent a medical, and the club said a deal had been reached on Thursday. Liverpool FC @LFCWe can confirm an agreement has been reached with @redbullsalzburg for the transfer of Takumi Minamino リヴァプールフットボールクラブは南野拓実選手の移籍についてレッドブル・ザルツブルクと合意に達したことを発表する confirmed the 24-year-old will complete the transfer from Austrian champions Salzburg on January 1, 2020, having impressed in his two UEFA Champions League group appearances against the Reds this season. It's understood Liverpool triggered the £7.25 million release clause in Minamino's contract, which looks like a bargain for a player who scored and assisted when Salzburg lost 4-3 at Anfield in October. Manager Jurgen Klopp spoke to LiverpoolFC.com and hailed his imminent arrival as "a wonderful signing," suggesting the club's fans were already well aware of the talent soon to arrive on Merseyside: "This is fabulous news—a wonderful signing. We are really, really happy about this. Our supporters have had the chance to see him close up recently so I don't need to sing too loudly about his qualities as they are already known. Takumi is a very quick, very clever player, he finds space between the lines. He is brave with the ball but also brave without the ball—a proper team player. He makes the best of himself for the benefit of others." Minamino has nine goals and 11 assists to his name from 22 appearances across all competitions this season. He'll become the third player with Salzburg affiliations to join Liverpool since Klopp arrived at the club, with Sadio Mane and Naby Keita each having represented the Austrian outfit earlier in their careers. Minamino—who has scored 11 goals in 22 appearances for Japan—spoke of his desire to play in the Premier League and, more specifically, to represent the UEFA Champions League holders, per Goal's Neil Jones: Neil Jones @neiljonesgoalMinamino: "It has been a dream, my dream to become a Liverpool player. And I'm so excited that the moment has come true. To play in the Premier League was one of my targets. I think this is the top-class league in the world." #LFCNeil Jones @neiljonesgoalMinamino: "I was thinking if my career as a footballer progressed smoothly, someday I would be able to play in the Premier League. "But I never thought I would be able to play in this team and I'm really happy about it. I'm looking forward to it." #LFCLiverpool's first-team squad are in Doha, Qatar, and will face Flamengo in the 2019 FIFA Club World Cup final on Saturday having defeated Monterrey 2-1 on Wednesday. They'll meet Leicester City and Wolverhampton Wanderers in their last two fixtures of 2019, but Minamino will hope to be involved when the Reds host Sheffield United on January 2. AP Photo/Alexandra Beier. Kingsley Coman played the role of spoiler as he denied Red Bull Salzburg an improbable victory in the round of 16 in the Champions League. Salzburg was clinging to a 1-0 lead before Coman got onto the end of a Thomas Muller header at the back post to bring Bayern Munich level in the 90th minute. The match finished at 1-1. CBS Sports Golazo @CBSSportsGolazoKingsley Coman with a 90th-minute equalizer pic.twitter.com/3Bre7bPmzOptaFranz @OptaFranz21 - Junior Adamu's goal for FC Salzburg in the 21st minute against Bayern Munich was the earliest by a substitute in a pic.twitter.com/pg905C58QNEspecially with the second leg being played at Allianz Arena, it isn't exactly a five-alarm fire for Julian Nagelsmann's squad. Removing the away goal rule also lessens the likelihood of a shocking upset because Salzburg really could've put the pressure on Bayern with one or two goals in Munich. Still, the odds of Bayern Munich crashing out of the Champions League in the round of 16 went up after Wednesday. The Germans finished with 63 percent possession and 21 shots but couldn't make the most of those chances. Manuel Veth @ManuelVethpic.twitter.com/gIXvn6m89As Jurgen Klopp explained before the match, the 18-year-old's start was both a testament to his development so far and the big role he's likely to occupy for the Reds going forward: Football on BT Sport @btsportfootball "The boy's in good shape, in a good moment, and is exactly the type of player we need tonight."

"There's no pressure on his shoulders. It's just an opportunity."
